

INSTITUTUL DE STUDII
SUD-EST EUROPENE

Institutions and personalities in international relations in Southeastern Europe in the 19th and 20th centuries

A Round table, 22.11.2024 Sofia-Bucharest

10:00 Opening

Panel I, Moderator Vladimir Zlatarsky

10:15 The Rosetti family and their impact on Romanian-Bulgarian relations. The case of Radu Rosetti and Radu R. Rosetti
Prof. Dr. Daniel Cain
Institute for South-East European Studies, Romanian Academy

10:30 The Bulgarian Literary Society in Braila and its International Relations (1869-1878)
Chief Assist. Dr. Dimiter Christov
Institute for Historical Studies, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences

10:45 The Arsakeion School in Athens, a Balkan Story
Assoc. Prof. Dr. Stefan Petrescu
Institute for South-East European Studies, Romanian Academy

11:00 The Black Sea - some thoughts on the epochs in history
Assoc. Prof. Dr. Vladimir Zlatarsky
Institute for Historical Studies, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences

11:15 Coffee Break

Panel II, Moderator Daniel Cain

- 11:30 The European Commission of the Danube, the Great Powers and the small Danubian states in 1879-1883
Prof. Dr. Constantin Ardeleanu
Institute for South-East European Studies, Romanian Academy
- 11:45 The Second Hague Peace Conference in the diaries of the Bulgarian delegate Gen. Varban Vinarov
Assoc. Prof. Dr. Aleka Strezova
Institute for Historical Studies, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences
- 12:00 "We are Romanian peasants in all the power of the word...". The Turks and Tatars of interwar Dobrogea in Romanian-Bulgarian relations
Chief Assist. Dr. Metin Omer
Institute for South-East European Studies, Romanian Academy
- 12:30 Bulgarian-Romanian trajectories after the Treaty of Craiova
Chief Assist. Dr. Peter Dobrev
Institute for Historical Studies, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences
- 12:45 Discussion